REUNION AT SARATOGA

Sales Week at Saratoga! To horsemen and horsewomen all over the United States, and abroad as well, these words are magic. And the magic consists, not just of a single spell, but of many. More than once in these columns we have reviewed the pleasant memories, the keen anticipation that they bring to mind. For the artist there are the long rows of white-washed training stables at dawn, overhung with wineglass elms and misty with woodsmoke; the hustle and bustle of early morning works, sleek-muscle race horses, spotted lead ponies, and exercise boys of varying hue from three continents; the parade of yearlings; the steeplechase course, the flowers in the afternoon, and the horses saddled under the trees. For the breeder and buyer of bloodstock there are the contacts to be made; the yearlings to be led out and inspected for pedigree, conformation, balance and soundness; the final look in the assembling ring at night, and the tenseness of the auction sale. For the owner and trainer there are the climate and water which do so much for horses; the background of the oldest race meeting in the country and the consequent prestige of winning a major stakes; the sorting out of the best two-year-olds; and top racing over jumps. For the racing fan and for the casual visitor there are the ever fascinating mutual windows, the excitement of the races themselves, and a bit of night life, from the parties after the sales to trotting races at the Raceway.

More impressive than any of these factors is the assemblage of people which they bring together, an assemblage which is of particular significance to The Chronicle. For of the several periodicals devoted to the blood horse in this country, only The Chronicle includes within its covers all the sports which depend upon the Thoroughbred. The complete range of these sports is probably more fully represented at Saratoga during sales week, than at any gathering during the year. Naturally the flat racing hierarchy is out in force. So is the steeplechasing fraternity, the hunt race meeting clan, and the point-to-pointers. The full quota from the breeding farms is on hand, the principal yearling buyers, and representatives of the sales organizations both domestic and foreign. The Masters of Foxhounds Association and the American Horse Shows Association are always well represented and the U. S. Equestrian Team, both by people who got into racing via these classic routes and by those who are presently active in the organizations. The same thing is true of the United States Pony Clubs and of the teaching profession. Although the major polo tournaments take place during August, many players manage to get up for the odd day, while a score of the most illustrious names in the Jockey Club have a strong polo background.

In the face of a rapidly shrinking total horse population, the cooperation of all those interested in the horse in sport is imperative. It is more than pleasant to see them gathered together in so delightful a setting.

"New Look"

Dear Sir:

Congratulations on the new look of THE CHRONICLE. Jeanne Barnes sent me down her's. . . very fine work and I feel sure you are on the right track.

Bud Burmester

Dear Sir:

The new format, type-set and paper look good. Congratulations. The only thing I'm afraid of is that, like the English "Punch", some day we'll wake up to find all the old familiar landmarks gone and that I just couldn't bear!

Sincerely,

"Serviceably Sound"

Dear Sir:

Here is an interesting problem recently encountered that might prove of interest to Chronicle readers. I own a working hunter that has a white spot in her off eye caused by an injury some five years ago. Because of this blemish I do not show her in conformation classes.

At several shows this past Spring she was pinned working hunter Champion, or Reserve or First place in individual classes. These shows were A. H. S. A. members and the judges were duly licensed AHSA judges.

Then at a show held a few weeks ago, in the first open working hunter class of the day, after all the entries had completed their rounds, instead of having the numbers called out to line up as is usually done ALL entries were asked to line up. The judge then

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

Swaps Adds Another World's Record To His Roster

Raleigh Burroughs

Willie Ratner is a two-year-old colt that scored the first win of his career at Monmouth Park on July 23. This initial triumph came in a race for maidens that were foaled in New Jersey. These "political subdivision" races encourage local horse-producers and keep the Kentucky-breds out. Thus, even though no national fame comes from winning, the money is kept in the family.

If you have concluded that the colt Willie Ratner must have a human namesake, you have exhibited rare deductive powers. The young son of Best Seller—Esta Lea, by Bull Lea, was christened in honor of a newspaperman that gent is Willie Ratner who makes sure that the readers of the Newark News are kept cognizant of sports activities all over New Jersey and the rest of the world.

I don't know why people continue to name horses after celebrities because it seems a sure way to keep them from amounting to anything—and it's confusing. You never know whether they're referring to the celebrity or the old gelding.

Years ago, horses named for humans did better. Clyde van Dusen and George Smith won Kentucky Derbies. George Smith was better known as Pittsburgh Phil, and Clyde van Dusen, the man trained Clyde van Dusen, the horse.

Paul Jones also won a Derby, so did Joe Cotton, and of course, there was Aristides.

However, in recent years, horses bearing people's names haven't been winning any triple crowns or many cup races; and it always shocks me to read that Betty Grable, say, just had another foal, or that Nelson Dunstan was booked to 23 mares in 1954.

(I almost forgot Bobby Brocato; but you take him and I'll take Swaps and Nashua and Needles, etc., etc., that aren't named after humans.)

During the discourse regarding nomenclature we have left Willie Ratner hanging in the air.

Let us now take him down.

Mr. Ratner (the human) besides disseminating news of athletic events, has the most interesting collection of sport coats between Essex County, New Jersey, and Dade County, Florida. Also, he owns an assortment of jockey pictures and portraits of baseball players that he got together back in the days when lithographed likenesses of Turf and diamond heroes were packed with cigarettes. Mr. Ratner and I are the only ones who can remember back that far. Incidentally, one of the Turkish fagmakers enclosed Old Masters. For years I treasured a Goya (the full-front-view one) that came out of a pack of Murads. Along with his other duties of sports reporting, Mr. Ratner advises his clientele as to the racing potential of the various horses engaged in the sundry races. Thus, he is a student of the mysterious Factor X, i. e. form.

Savants in this field, upon occasion, came up with one that they like well enough for their own money. This happens to Mr. Ratner and, just for entertainment, mind you, he sends in a buck or two.

Now, despite his normally scientific approach to the business of betting, Willie is not unaware of the puissance of intuition, which reminds me of a story that I have told often, and shall tell again when opportunity arises.

Mr. Ratner and I were sitting in the pressbox at Pimlico one afternoon talking about racing in general and a horse named Willy Willie in particular.

"He's a favorite of mine," said Mr. Ratner, "and I like to bet on him whenever I get the chance. And here's a funny thing that happened. Yesterday, while I was glancing through the Jamaica entries, the word 'Willie' caught my eye and it must have registered with my subconscious mind as 'Willy Willie.' My wife was going to the New York track and I told her to bet on him."

"After the races, Mrs. Ratner called me and said that Willy Willie hadn't been entered but she'd bet on the only 'Willie' on the program. That was Mr. Willie—and he won, paying fifteen dollars for each two, which shows that mental lapses can act in your favor."

While Willie (the man) was relating this story a race was going into history at Pimlico. Mr. Ratner glanced down at the track and saw a horse labeled No. 1 galloping across the finish line seven lengths in front of his nearest rival.

"Number One," responded a man with a program, "is Willy Willie."

Hollywood Park

On Wednesday, July 25, 43,442 stayed off from work to see the end of the Hollywood Park meeting and the annihilation of the old record for 1 5/8 miles. Both were scheduled for that date.

Under 130 pounds, Swaps was up against a field of horses, in the Sunset Handicap, that he could have whipped carrying Rex Ellsworth, Meshach Tenney AND Bill Shoemaker. The only questions were (a) by that margin would he beat them? and (b) how many seconds he would lop off the old mark?

As our present-day handicappers cannot lift more than 130 pounds and will not ask a horse to do something they can't do, weight-setting is accomplished by taking poundage off the inferior horses rather than by increasing the imposts of the stars.

This works out on paper.

It doesn't on the track, because we haven't any hundred-pound jockeys.

Every horse in the Sunset Handicap, except Swaps, carried more over weight poundage than prescribed by the handicapper.

D. Manzella, on Tordito got down to 105. Tordito was supposed to carry 100. Manzella might have made that figure, but why saw off an arm just to ride a 96-to-1 shot against Swaps?

Of course, Swaps won—easily. The time was 2:38 1/5 which is of course, a new world record.

Swaps led all the way. Adam's Apple tried to keep up and stayed pretty close for a mile, but then was swallowed. Then Honeys Alibi moved into second place and stayed there to the wire. Swaps had a six-furlong lead at the eighth pole and coasted home to win by 4 1/4. Blue Volt was third, one length back of Honeys Alibi and three in front of Alidon.

The $64,400 Swaps won boosted his earnings to $763,150. He stands in sixth place among the money-winners of the world.

Swaps holds four world records and has tied one. Those to which he owns full title are for the mile and 70 yards—1:38 3/5; for the mile—1:33 1/5; 1 1/16 miles—1:39 and 1 5/8 miles—2:38 1/5. He is the co-holder of the world mark for 1 1/8 miles—1:46 4/5 and set a Hollywood Park track record of 1:58 3/5 for a mile and one-quarter. Also, he holds the American record for a mile and three-sixteenths on the turf—1:54 3/5. (Editor's Note: Mister Gus lowered this on July 28).

In case you've forgotten, Swaps is by *Khaled, from Iron Reward, by *Beau Pere. Rex Ellsworth bred him and owns him. Meshach Tenney trains him.

Bill Shoemaker is the regularly-assigned equestrian.

A horse named Riley won the Kentucky Derby of 1890 with Isaac Murphy in the saddle, and here comes Riley winning the 1956 Dwyer.

This is enough to bring Bridie Murphy back into the news, but it isn't a matter of reincarnation. With only half a million words in the dictionary, besides proper names, The Jockey Club is permitting owners to use some of the old ones over again.

The current Riley belongs to Greentree Stable and was hanging up his first win in an added-money event. He scored over a fair field of three-year-olds, in which Oh Johnny and Beau Diable were expected to furnish most of the excitement.

Belzami an outsider, showed all the early speed and raced far out in front—at one time he was nine lengths to the good then tired and ended up sixth, beaten only 3 1/2 lengths.

When Belzami tired Tick Tock went to the front. He was there for the stretch call, with Belzami second, Oh Johnny third and Ricci Tavi fourth.

Riley raced up through the stretch and took the event by a length and a half over Oh Johnny. Bill's Sky Boy closed fast and missed second by a head, beating Ricci Tavi a neck for third money. The winner paid $11.50 for $2.

Oh Johnny was the favorite. He carried 123 pounds to Riley's 112. Ricci Tavi was top-weighted at 126.

The Dwyer, formerly an Aqueduct stakes at 1 1/4 miles, now is a handicap at 1 3/16.

Riley (Hill Prince—Easy Living, by *Heliopolis) was making his tenth start in '56 and registering his fourth win.

He has been third 3 times. The Dwyer money award, $30,400, gives him $40,300 for the year. He won 1 race in 4 starts last year and earned $4,050.

Greentree bred him and owns him, so John Gaver is his trainer.

Ted Atkinson rides for the barn.

Handicapper F. E. Kilroe got himself a nice tight finish in the six furlong Wilson Handicap by employing a wide assortment of weights.

The winner, George D. Widener's four-year-old Ambergris, carried 107 pounds. The runner up, Decathlon, a three-year-old lugged 119 and lost by a nose. Third to finish was the seven-year-old Mr. Turf, under 109. He was a nose back of Decathlon. Switch On fourth in line and top weight under 126 pounds, was only 1 1/2 lengths behind the first three and was coming very rapidly at the end.

So close at the wire were the leaders that there were mumblings about another triple dead-heat.

In winning the Wilson, Ambergris put his 1956 record at 5 wins, 2 seconds and 2 thirds in 14 starts. His earnings including the $15,850 he took out of the Wilson total $38,275.

His mutual payoff in the July 23 race was $27.90. Hedley Woodhouse rode the son of Eight Thirty (from Fragrance, by *Sir Gallahad III). Erdenheim Farms Co. bred him and W. H. Mulholland trains.

King Hairan won another and interrupted Beauguerre's winning streak when he took the Great American on July 25.

Leo Edward's flashy two-year-old led all the way. Beauguerre raced into second place before covering half a mile of the 5 1/2-furlong sprint, but hung in that spot, finishing 1 1/4 lengths aft of the winner. Cohoes was eight lengths farther back in third place and it was another five to Little Hermit which collected fourth money.

The $22,400 Mr. Edwards gathered in for his colt's win brought revenue from that source to $96,475.

King Hairan, under the allowance arrangement of the Great American carried high weight of 122.

He closed on the tote board at 3 to 4.

His record stands 7 wins and 2 seconds in 10 tries.

Stakes he won before the Great American are the Florida Breeders' Hialeah Juvenile, Gulfstream Park Dinner, Christiana and Tremont.

King Hairan is a Florida-bred. He is by King's Stride, out of Lady Hairan, by Hairan. Mr. Edwards and co-owner Harris B. Massey purchased the colt from Breeder W. E. Leach for $35,000, plus $1,000 sales tax, after his initial win at Hialeah.

Eddie Arcaro had the mount on King Hairan in the G. A., L. H. Hunt trains the two-year-old.

Monmouth Park

The Monmouth crowd, on July 28, skillfully appraised the field and made Levee the choice at 7 to 10 in the Monmouth Oaks; and Levee won in fine style.

Mrs. Vernon G. Cardy's three-year-old filly came off the fast pace set by Triple Jay, grabbed a head lead going to the eighth pole and made it 1 1/4 lengths at the wire.

Newtondale Stable's Rose Fete Wins the Radnor Purse, Feature Event of 2nd Week

Al Cadeaux

The second full week of hurdle racing at Monmouth Park continued the marked upswing of interest in the lesser obstacle events. A total of $1,275,606 has been wagered as compared to the $1,022,279 chanced in the corresponding period during 1955. The $253,327 increase reflects a 20 percent increase.

Feature hurdle event of the past week was the Radnor Purse, named in honor of The Radnor Hunt Meeting, held at Malvern, Pa., allowance event for 3-year-olds and upward which was won by Newtondale Stable's Rose Fete, a 4-year-old chestnut filly by Fairy Manhurst out of Roseretter by Lancegaye or Teddy, bred by William duPont Jr. The place went to Mrs. Peter Reid's Now It's Time, an entry with Rose Fete since both are trained by Miss Elizabeth C. Bosley of Unionville, Pa. William C. Duryea's Breakers Ahead took third place in the field of a dozen starers. But for a bad bobble in clearing the seventh hurdle along the backstretch, Mrs. Reed's representative could very well have finished in a more menacing position.

With starter Eddie Blind breaking the field "good" from the tape, Now It's Time, ridden by Scottie Riles, went to the front from his number two position to take the lead, an advantage he did not relinquish until the ninth hurdle at which time his stablemate, Rose Fete took over. Pressing the early leader for the advantage was Mrs. H. T. McKnight's Narcissus 2nd, ridden by Paddy Smithwick, and Tremont Farms' Follies Bergere, coupled as 9-5 favorite in the wagering with Mrs. J. Wisenfield and Mrs. M. G. Walsh's Big Profit. Now It's Time was able to increase his margin to three lengths over Follies Bergere at the fifth jump which held a similar margin over Rose Fete. Landing badly after clearing the seventh hurdle, Now It's Time gave way to Rose Fete in the run to the ninth jump but held on well to hold Breakers Ahead safe by a neck for second place, although, four lengths behind the winner. Breakers Ahead, guided by H. Hatcher, fenced in eighth position for the greater part of the about 1 1/2 mile event, but closed well in the late stages to be awarded third place. A length behind was Follies Bergere, a neck to the fore of Llangollen Farm's Get Lost, which broke tardily but hung at the end as a result of his extended effort in making up ground. Rose Fete required 2:43 3/5 for the about 1 1/2 miles route over the firm course. The winning entry returned $9.60, $11.60 and $8.80 across-the-board and Breakers Ahead paid $6.00 to show.

First disqualification of the current hurdle session occurred on July 23 when Harry LaMontagne's Hurst Park, an entry with Mary A. Rumsey's Tall Mound, was denied the victory for interfering with Mrs. M. Troy Jones' Polly Pep approaching the final hurdle. This test was for 3-year-olds and upward with a claiming price of $4,000 over the about 1 3/4 miles course. Allison Stern's Garfield, coupled in the mutuels with Happy Hill Farm's Knocks Twice, was responsible for the pace until the fifth hurdle. Hurst Park then took over and maintained his slight advantage to the wire. Garfield tiring from his early effort, finished last in the field of 12. Although rank from the outset, Hurst Park, the 7-2 luke warm betting choice with Tall Mound, moved to the rail immediately after the start to press Garfield's advantage. Gaining the lead mid-way along the backstretch the 6-year-old Honeyway—Dark Sea by Beresford gelding, ridden by the -lbs. allowance apprentice, M. Hoey was able to maintain a length and a half margin until he was headed briefly by Polly Pep at the 10th hurdle. In the stretch drive Hurst Park regained command and out-ran his pursuer by a length, only to be disqualified for his misdeed approaching the final hurdle. Mrs. M. G. Walsh's Seregal, a better than 50-1 chance in the betting, entered contention after a mile, but could not menace the leaders and trailed Polly Pep by two lengths at the finish. Polly Pep is a 5-year-old gelding by Polynesia out of Sea Pep by Annapolis and is trained by D. C. Jacobs. The time for the event was 3:21 over the firm course.

Mill River Stable's Eternal Son, having indicated his speed the previous week when he finished second to Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Antagonizer, showed marked improvement in fencing and stronger determination at the front end on July 26 while defeating a field of eight opposing hurdles on July 26. The 8-year-old dark bay gelding by Eternal Bull out of Angel by Easton led all the way to triumph by a length and three-quarters over Carleton H. Palmer's Galatian which enjoyed an eight and a half-lengths margin over Mrs. Phipps' Antagonizer, the 9-10 choice.

Carrying 143 pounds, 10 less than Galatian, Eternal Son, capably handled by H. Hatcher, opened a clear advantage throughout the first seven hurdles over Allison Stern's Glencannon, an entry with Happy Hill Farm's Marcheast, the second choice with the public. Galatian, far back in the early stages, began his strong rally at the sixth jump and engaged the eventual winner at the final hurdle. Heads apart turning into the home lane, Eternal Son was able to spread eagle his opponent convincingly so as to be drawing away crossing the finish line. J. Murphy, the rider astride the second finisher lodged a claim of foul against the winner, alleging interference entering the stretch but the claim was disallowed by the stewards. Trained by Arthur White Eternal Son, $10.80 to win, negotiated the about 1 3/4 miles in 3:19 3/5 over the firm course.

Registering the first major reversal of the 10 hurdle programs presented was F. Eugene Dixon, Jr.'s Finnochio which returned a $69.40 mutuel in winning the Scoobyville Purse on July 27. Making his second start over the lesser obstacles, the 3-year-old gelding by Platter out of Sun Hera by Sun Teddy which finished far in areas of such stakes horses as Flying Fury, Neji and Songai while competing in the Escargot Purse on July 20—brushed through hurdles this time to wear down Isadore Bieber's Basil Bee by a half-length, the latter, 12 lengths in advance of the 9-10 favorite Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Affable Fifth among the 12 allowance hurdles at the 4th jump, Finnochio began his rally from the outside and just managed to overcome his large deficit in the final yards. Affable fenced poorly while in front over the first two obstacles and thereafter approached each hurdle with uncertainty to finish in third place. Finnochio's brushing through the hurdles caused him to suffer lacerations of his forelegs. Ridden by J. Hobales, who made up the bulk of the 136 pounds he carried, Finnochio ran the about 1 3/4 miles in 3:21 3/5 over a firm course.

Monmouth Park Hurdle Handicap

Ralph Shoemaker

The growing colony of hurdle racing enthusiasts which visit Monmouth Park received a preview of the $22,000 invitational Midsummer Hurdle Handicap on Friday, July 20. The Escargot Purse, named for Mrs. C. E. Adams' winner of the 1954 renewal of the Midsummer, attracted a banner field of 10 hurdlers, and excepting two, all owners were present to see their color-bearers display their ability before the invitational committee.

Registering his second straight victory over the Oceanport, N. J. course, Flying Fury led from start to finish to turn back Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Neji by 1 1/2 lengths. Throughout the 1 3/4 miles over 10 hurdles, Mrs. C. Paul Denckla's Songai furnished strong contention to finished 3rd, 2 lengths behind last year's "Steeplechase Horse of the Year". Excepting 2 starters (Gallant Peter and Finnocchio) making their debut over hurdles, a separation of 8 lengths was registered by the chart caller between the 8 other contestants.

Carrying 3 pounds over the condition book weight of 131, Flying Fury was hustled away from the start by John Cotter. Although his fencing ability did not compare with more experienced competitors, the 4-year-old colt displayed speed between obstacles which shook off challenges from Songai, Alvin Untermeyer's Morpheus and Winding Way Farm's Khumbaba during the running. The latter wheeled at the break, knocking Elizabeth C. Bosley's Best Gift off stride.

Shouldering the topweight of 163 pounds, Neji closed on the inside but F. D. "Dooley" Adams' urging could not move his mount any closer than 1 1/2 lengths from the final hurdle to the finish. Running over firm turf, the winner negotiated the route in 3:21.

Propelled into prominence by defeating America's premier 'chaser in his third start over hurdles, the Cain Hoy Stable colt trained by the canny Hollie Hughes immediately became eligible for an invitation to the world's richest hurdle event. This was quickly forthcoming and delivered personally to owner-breeder Harry F. Guggenheim by Amory L. Haskell, president of Monmouth Park and chairman of the Midsummer invitational committee.

By *Nasrullah—Sicily, by Reaping Reward, Flying Fury gained prominence as a 3-year-old when he won the Kentucky Derby Trial. Although placing in other stakes, he failed to enter the winner's circle until he turned 4 years old and won the Palisades Purse, a 1 1/2 mile race over the lesser obstacles in a race which opened Monmouth's hurdle season on July 12.

The Escargot, 6th event to be run during the New Jersey hurdle session which closes on August 3, brought a new high for wagering on hurdle races in the Garden State when the public bet $167,973 on the stake preview. This sum raised the wagering on hurdle races at this course to an encouraging vault of 33 percent over the wagering on hurdle races last year. Overall racing, with the hurdle increase included, registered a 3 percent increase as of Saturday, July 21.

In winning the opening hurdle race by a 4 1/2 length margin on July 12, Flying Fury turned back Mrs. Wallace S. Whittaker's home-bred Odyssey. The latter finished 10 lengths in front of the Arbywood Stable's Phi Beta Kappa, purchased a few days preceding from Sidney Culver, who is racing a successful flat string in New Jersey. The opening event attracted 22 entries; immediately following the race, Chris Wood, Jr., director of hurdle racing, announced that an extra race would be run on Monday, July 16, to accommodate those unable to start. Covering the 9 obstacles and 1 1/2 miles of firm turf in 2:40, Flying Fury broke his maiden over hurdles in an impressive manner.

Emulating his victory in the Belmont Park edition, Walter M. Jeffords' Policeman Day scored a 4 1/2 length decision in Monmouth Park's portion of the National Maiden Hurdle series. Ably handled by A. P. "Paddy" Smithwick, the 4-year-old gelding had Isadore Bieber's Basil Bee and jockey R. S. McDonald pushing him throughout the 1 3/4 mile trip. Making his first start over hurdles since last year, Basil Bee finished 15 lengths to the good of Mrs. Wm. Coxe Wright's Breakfront. Making his debut under silks, the Irish bred Hutton's Grace gained 4th money in the purse which grossed $10,850.

Only 7 of the 67 nominees accepted the issue for the race, which closes for nominations on March 15, and the winner negotiated the 1 3/4 miles and 10 hurdles in 3:18 4/5 over firm turf.

Unable to handle Flying Fury on the opening day, Mrs. Wallace S. Whittaker's mare, Odyssey, met 11 contenders to her liking on July 16 and accounted for the Navarin Purse at 1 1/2 miles over hurdles in 2:43 1/5. Ruby Brick, an Irish import and a hopeful for the Midsummer Hurdle Handicap representing C. W. Stitzer and M. G. "Mickey" Walsh, set the early pace with Odyssey under Albert Foot in 2nd position. Taking over the lead on approaching the 7th hurdle on the backstretch, Odyssey held sway for the balance of the journey to best Tremont Farms' Pollies Bergere by 4 lengths. The latter was ridden by the owner's son, William Frantz, Jr. Closing ground in the late stages, the Arbywood Stable's Phi Beta Kappa again finished in the 3rd slot.

Meeting 7 contenders in the Greek Syndicate Purse, a 1 1/2 mile test for 3-year-olds on July 17, Montpelier's Dromond scored his second straight victory over hurdles. Ably handled by Albert Foot, the home-bred by Annapolis—Bennu see-sawed throughout the event with Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Affable to get up in the final stride to win by a head. F. D. "Dooley" Adams rode Mrs. Phipps' entry in the race which was a thriller and brought much favorable comment from the racing public. Purchased preceding the race from Mrs. M. G. Walsh, Big Profit carried Mrs. Jessie Wisenfield's colors into 3rd position.

Following the event, which was run in 2:42 4/5 over firm turf, the mystery of the "Greek Syndicate" was unveiled as the popular steeplechase patron, Allison Stern, presented a wrist watch to Albert Foot, the winning jockey. The "Greek Syndicate" turned out to be a group of Mr. Stern's golfing companions paying their annual visit as a group to the course. During the day, the group were the guests of the former amateur rider in his parterre box.

With the closing of entries for the claiming race scheduled for Thursday, July 19, the entry box was again jammed and a lengthy list failed to "draw in". Once again the Monmouth Park policy prevailed and the same type of race was carded as an extra event for the following Monday. Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Antagonizer and the Mill River Stable's Eternal Son did "draw in" and this pair, former stake performers, finished as named in the final outcome for the lion's share. Over the 1st hurdle on top, Eternal Son, with apprentice rider H. Hatcher in the saddle, went to the front with E. H. Bowen's Joy Time making him extend himself. When the latter tired, Another Hyacinth, winner of the United Hunts Purse at Monmouth last summer, moved up to take over. Playing a waiting game, F. D. "Dooley" Adams made his move on Antagonizer in the stretch to catch the pace-maker on approaching the 10th and final hurdle.

Used up by his contention, Eternal Son gave way to follow Antagonizer under the wire by 3 lengths. Llangollen Farms' Get Lost, who got to Eternal Son on the final turn and faded, came again to finish 3rd. Running over firm turf, the winner carried Adams to his first victory at Monmouth Park in years and registered 3:18 4/5.

Monmouth Moments—Amory L. Haskell, president of Monmouth Park and the United Hunts Racing Association, played host to the hurdle and steeplechase fraternity on July 12. It was the opening of Monmouth's hurdle racing session which closes on August 3, and a goodly crowd was on hand for the luncheon in the Omnibus Box atop the clubhouse. . . Ray Woolfe heads the trainers here by virtue of consecutive victories with Mrs. Wallace S. Whittaker's Odyssey and Montpelier's Dromond. Albert Foot rode both winners. . . With the favorites scoring in 4 of the 6 hurdle races run up until July 20, the wagering has increased 33 percent over last year's figures. . . With a well-written condition book, director of hurdle racing Chris Wood Jr., has carded 2 extra races to take care of hurdlers unable to get in the overloaded races.

News from the STUDS

Henderson PURCHASE

James Henderson of Lexington, Ky., has purchased from Marcel Boussac, noted French breeder, the unraced three-year-old brown mare Phanokka, sired by the unbeaten French Derby winner and classic sire, Pharos, out of Djebel's full-sister, stakes-placed Nokka, by Tourbillon. Phanokka has been pronounced in foal to only once-beaten Galdador, who won the 1950 renewal of the English Derby from Prince Simon. The resulting foal from Phanokka will be inbred, for Galdador is sired by Djebel; however, Marcel Boussac already has had great success through inbreeding to Djebel's sire, the foundation stallion, Tourbillon.

Phanokka a descendant of Ballantrae, ancestress of Equipoise and Seabiscuit, not only is out of a full-sister to Djebel, sire of *My Babu, *Djeddah, Apollonia and Coronation V, but is also a half-sister to two stakes producers and to Marsyaka which finished third in the Irish Oaks and Irish Cesarewitch.

Phanokka will be flown to the United States in mid-September to join the small band of mares which Henderson keeps at Bosque Bonita Farm in Versailles, Ky. With the addition of Phanokka, his owner now plans to breed for the market on a limited scale. No stallion has as yet been selected for Phanokka for 1957.

*Fairforall

A new arrival at H. B. Marcus' Glade Valley Farm, Walkersville, Md., is *Fairforall by Fairwell—Westrol, by Rosewell.

*Fairforall will stand his 1956 season at a fee of $300. He is owned by Greenbrier Stable. His first foals are now yearlings.

He will share Glade Valley Farm with The Pincher and the famous Iron Horse, Alerted.

American Horses In Ireland

Mrs. R. More O'Ferrell's Atlantida (Nimbus) won the Pretty Polly Stakes; Miss E. R. Sears' London Scottish (*Royal Charger) lost the Curragh Foal Stakes, by a short head. The Barclay Stables *Tulyar mare Star Telegrams had yet another boost when her daughter, Solar Telegrams, won the Rosewell two-year-old Stakes at the Curragh.

Llangollen's Brizie

American owner Mrs. M. E. Lunn of Llangollen Farm, Upperville, Virginia had her colors carried to victory, July 13, at Leopardstown by her two-year-old, Brizie (Tabriz). Winner was owner-bred, at the Aly Khan's Paris stud, and is out of the stakes producing mare, La Li (*Blenheim II).

Edwards Tour

Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, who are now engaged in rehabilitating the Audley Farm, Berryville, Virginia where B. B. Jones bred such good horses as Gallant Knight and Ethel Gray, managed to find comfortable quarters near the eastern race tracks by docking their yacht Fireball, not far away. The latter is now moored at Red Bank near Monmouth Park. In the near future the Edwards' plan a tour which will include not only Audley Farm but also Randall Park, Fairmount Park (of which Mr. Edwards is president) and Arlington Park.

Montpelier Gates

Mrs. Marion duPont Scott has evolved at her Montpelier Stud near Orange, Virginia a method of adapting the standard aluminum gates for horse farms. Wooden slats are inserted between the aluminum slats, thus preventing horses from getting their feet through the gates.

Garden State Wins Irish Oaks

When Trainer Harry Wragg bought a yearling filly at the Ballsbridge Yearling Sales near Dublin in September 1954, he jokingly remarked, "I'll be back to win the Irish Oaks with this one." He did exactly that on July 21st with the filly which he named Garden State (after the world's richest two-year-old race at Camden, New Jersey) and which beat the favorite Marcel Boussac's filly, Janlari, by a neck. Garden State's dam, Monkeyshines, is out of Confetti by War Admiral out of Galadaye II. The latter is the dam of Boreale, whose daughter Singing Grass by War Admiral, is the dam of Never Say Die.

Success For Olympia

Two of Olympia's offspring won stakes on Saturday, July 21st, the two-year-old colt Creek Game which won the Arlington Futurity for Fred W. Hooper at Arlington Park and the three-year-old filly Olympia Dell which won the Miss Woodford Stakes for Mrs. E. S. Moore at Monmouth Park.

Bernborough's Sire

Emborough, the sire of *Bernborough, had to be destroyed recently at the age of 24 when he fell and broke his shoulder at the Kialla Stud, Queensland, Australia. He was imported from England by the late Percy Miller and sired winners of approximately one-half million dollars.

Finney On Barter

At Newmarket Sales, Mr. Humphrey S. Finney said that he thought it very unlikely that the distances of American races would be increased; he was of opinion that Barter arrangements might be the method of interchanging British and American bloodstock, in the future. This would allow the best American-breds and lines to be crossed with British ones of similar reputation. —P. De B. O'B.

Ellsworth Mares

First consignment of the Aga Khan breeds recently sold to Rex Ellsworth, owner of Swaps, left Shannon, Sunday, July 15, consigned by the Kerr Agency of Dublin. This comprised the mares, Makalen, Queen of Himalaya, Manushia Donya, But Beautiful, Rose of Veroda, Bara Begum and St. Andrew's Eve. A further consignment leaves Paris in about a week's time. —P. de B. O-B.

Ellsworth Mares Second Shipment

The second shipment of mares to Rex Ellsworth from the Aga Khan's studs recently left France by air. They included Swara (1952, by Sayajirao—Belinzona), Naissapur (1942, by Nearco—Udaipur), Panic (1952 b Niccolo del Arca—Patsy), Manyata (1952, by Migoli—Real), Rose of Afghanistan (1949, by Airborne—Serenity), Mary Stuart (1945, by Vatelior—You Funny Thing), Silver Lass (1947, by Bahram—Silver Star), and Magie Noire (1948, by Fastnet—Arethuse).

How To Pick Yearlings

Based on the form in 1956 to date the Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Stable seems to have been the champion yearling picker of 1955. In that year they purchased six yearlings for $152,000. One of them has started only once and another has not started at all. Lucky Mel, Darling Adelle and Mr. Sam S. have all been stakes winners and these six horses have only just begun to work.

Mellon's Broodmare

Blue Banner, the filly which Paul Mellon of Upperville, Virginia bought from Mrs. John Hertz primarily as a broodmare, has proved a smashing success on the track. After winning the seven furlong Distaff Handicap at Monmouth on July 2nd, she won the Henry Hudson Handicap at Jamaica a couple of weeks later on July 16th. Certainly looks like a good buy.

Tulyar At Claiborne

Flying from Shannon Airport Ireland, Tulyar arrived July 16th at A. B. Hancock's Claiborne Farm near Lexington, Kentucky. He has been placed in a barn specially constructed for him and is said to have shipped without losing a pound.

Triple Jay A Bargain

Triple Jay has really moved up the financial scale since she was sold at auction in the 1954 Keeneland Sales by Claiborne Farm for $600 to J. Bengé. She broke her maiden for the latter at Centennial Park by six lengths. After being purchased by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Robineau, she was claimed at Santa Anita for $8,000 by the Cardinal and Gold Stable. For this outfit, she has won the Goose Girl and Honeymoon Stakes at Hollywood Park and is now being shipped east to Monmouth.

Lucas' Colt

William F. Lucas, Louisville, who boards his breeding stock at Matt Winn Williamson's Old Westport Place, Anchorage, will offer a War Relic colt at the Keeneland Summer Yearling Sales.

Saratoga Consignments

Maine Chance Farm.

Mrs. Elizabeth N. Graham's Maine Chance Farm originally gained attention as an auction buyer rather than a seller. But in recent years Mrs. Graham has been building up an imposing breeding establishment, from which have come such cracks as Jet Action and Rose Jet. The New York sportswoman, who now has her own breeding farm at Lexington, Ky., last year sold Beauguerre, a Mr. Busher colt who recently won the Bay State Kindergarten Stakes.

This summer Maine Chance will offer at Saratoga a dozen yearlings including Rose Jet, three sons of Mr. Busher, a colt from Beauguerre's family and other potential stars.

Rose Jet, best two-year-old of 1951, took the Schuylerville, Matron, Selima and De-among Mrs. Graham's dozen. This colt is one of two in the consignment by Jet Jewel, a son of Jet Pilot--Crepe Myrtle. This Jet Jewel colt has as grandam the Coombe July Stakes captor Cora Pearl; and the next dam was the French classic filly Pearl Cap, dam of the English Derby victor Pearl Diver. The other son of Jet Jewel is out of Belle Jeep, unraced full sister to the Colleen Stakes scorer Late Model, and half sister to Beauguerre and to the stakes-placed Model Ace.

Morven Stud (Whitney Stone).

Getthere Jack, one of last year's best juveniles, was sold at Saratoga by Morven Stud, the Charlottesville, Va., breeding establishment of Whitney Stone of New York, N.Y.

This summer Mr. Stone will offer five imported yearling is also a full brother to Chiaroscuro, victor in the Bristol and Midland Breeders' Foal Stakes, and Southern Handicap; and to Seafarer, scorer in the Zetland Plate. By the Derby and Ascot Gold Cup captor Ocean Swell, this colt is out of Light of Day, who took the Cottenham, Scarbrough and Swansey Stakes; and ran third in the 1,000 Guineas.

Mr. Stone has also consigned the sole *Princequillo colt in the sale. This yearling is a half brother to the stakes-placed Nantallah. The dam, Shimmer, whose first three starters have all won, placed in the Burch Memorial Handicap and showed in the Empire City Demoiselle Stakes. She is a half sister to the crack sprinter Rippey, earner of $298,115. Broad Ripple, the next dam, annexed the Demoiselle and other features.

The 100% producer Gallow, half sister to Meringue's dam, produced the other Morven yearling, a son of *Djeddah, whose get includes Cup Man, Mr. Brief and Craigwood. The third dam is Viva America, who moiselle Stakes. Her half sister is a striking miss who bears a strong resemblance to her sire, the French champion *Ardan. The latter's daughters have included top-notch performers in four different countries: Damaka in France, Dacia in Italy, Miss Ardan in Canada and Indian Legend in the U.S. This is the only *Ardan filly in the vendue.

Mr. Busher, unbeaten until he was cut down prematurely, has gotten such quick horses as Beau Busher and Busher Fantasy. One of his sons is a grand-looking half brother to the stakes-placed Mr. Rabbit and Admiral's Pride, and to Park Dandy's dam. Another Mr. Busher colt is from Bell Amie, winning full sister to Cover Up and Belle Jolie. The third son of Mr. Busher is out of the *Beau Pere producer Mairaine, who traces to the family of the great matriarch Scapa Flow.

Another *Beau Pere mare, Jampol's half sister Windsor Pearl, has her second foal yearlings, including two from Getthere Jack's family.

Flight and Springbok, dams of this pair, are half sisters, both out of Bongo, three-quarters sister to the Albany Handicap hero Giles County and half sister to Pharmio's grandam.

Springbok has foaled Africaine, who set a new Atlantic City grass-course record of 2:00 flat for 1 3/16 miles; and Expletive, an overnight handicap performer. She has the only Morven filly, a daughter of that grand progenitor Bimelech.

Flight ran third in the Schuylerville Stakes. Her produce include the overnight handicap winner By Sea, dam of Getthere Jack. Flight's yearling is the lone colt in the auction by *Ambiorix, sire of Allied, Full Flight and Jean Baptiste.

Stealing the spotlight in Mr. Stone's quintet, however, is likely to be the accomplishment of a full brother to last season's grass-course champion *St. Vincent. This won the Clipsetta Stakes, Kentucky Oaks and other fixtures. Her daughter Toro Nancy prevailed in the Arlington Futurity, and foaled the high-class performers Two and Twenty and Boswell Lady.

Country Life Farm, Agent for Mrs. Gerard S. Smith.

Counterpoint recently created something of a sensation when two members of his first crop, Snow White and Defilade, ran one-two in the filly division of the National Stallion Stakes. Counterpoint was a sensational runner, too, "Horse of the Year" and earner of $284,575. His only yearling at Saratoga is a filly, the second foal of the winner Supersonic, consigned by Mrs. Gerard S. Smith of New Canaan, Conn.

Springbury Farm

The most successful horse ever sold at Saratoga was Battlefield, a juvenile champion who went on to gain a total of 15 stakes victories and $474,727. The only member of his first crop to enter the Spa's auction ring is one of four colts consigned by Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh's Springbury Farm, Berryville, Va.

This son of Battlefield is a half brother to Fly Haven, winner of the Bishopsgarth, Whalton and Ayr Stewards Handicaps; to Preciptico, captor of the Brighton Autumn and Rosemary Handicaps; and to Gold Kale, who took the Newbridge Plate in Ireland. The first three dams were all stakes producers.

Two more Springbury colts are out of imported matrons. One is a half brother, by the young Argentine-bred sire *Miche, to Passion, who annexed the Hythe Plate in England. The dam, *Transparent, acquired the August Plate; and is a half-sister to three added-money scorers and to a producer of five more. *Felicita, a daughter of the Killiney Plate victor Sylvan Songstress, is represented by her first foal, a son of Ace Marine's sire Ace Admiral.

A colt by the crack runner and good young sire Hill Prince--Tedeem, a good producer from the family of Hartsville and Alan-a-Dale, rounds out Mrs. Greenhalgh's quartet.

Old Westport Place and Laguna Seca Ranch

Largest consignment of the Wednesday-night session, and the third largest in the entire vendue, consists of 18 yearlings to be offered by the long-distance partnership of Matt Winn Williamson's Old Westport Place, Anchorage, Ky; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bishop's Laguna Seca Ranch, Monterey, Cal.

The group includes the only three Saratoga colts by *Royal Gem II, sire of Royal Bay Gem, Dark Star, Royal Sting and Doc Eggers. Daughters of "Triple Crown" winners foaled two of these young racing prospects. One is out of the Count Fleet mare Chiffon, who set a new Ascot Park record of 3:25 2/5 in the two-mile Ascot Gold Cup. She is a producing half sister to the high-class Twenty Thirty. Another son of *Royal Gem II is the second foal of Admiral Sweep, by War Admiral from the Viscaya Stakes tallier Kind Gesture. The third *Royal Gem II colt is out of Lyrical, winning and producing half sister to the top-class fillies Ariel Song, Happy Birthday and Quiz Song.

Victor in the Mermaid, Correction and other Handicaps, Quiz Song has her first foal, a filly by Queen Hopeful's sire Roman, in the Old Westport-Laguna Seca group. Also among the partnership's offerings are a pair of yearlings by that brilliant speedster Rippey. His filly is from Mandalay, whose eight winners have averaged over nine triumphs and more than $16,700 apiece, and are still going strong. The mare is a full sister to the classy Warlaine.

The Rippey colt is a half brother to the hardy handicapper Hollyman. The seven starters sent out by the dam, the 100% producer Hollyhock, have averaged more than seven triumphs each. A good victor herself, Blue Larkspur's daughter Hollyhock is a half sister to two English stakes performers, and to the dam of the stellar American runner Royal Pam.

Another Blue Larkspur mare, Best of All, foaled the lone Amphitheatre yearling in the sale. This Old Westport-Laguna Seca filly is a half sister to Frantie's Bid, who placed in the Monmouth Oaks and Saratoga Test Stakes. Best of All is a full sister to Benefactor and Kinsman.

*Daumier and *Royal Charger, a pair of crack performers currently represented by their first American yearling crops, both have fillies in the partnership group. The *Royal Charger miss, half sister to the stakes-placed Danherst and Duke Fannelli, is the sole Saratoga offering by the sire of *Turn-To and *Royal Serenade. The dam, Desert Mirage, is a winning and producing half sister to the added-money scorers Unchallenged, Sir Bim and Blunt Remark. The *Daumier filly is a half sister to the Suffolk Maiden Hurdles here Joe Hogan. The dam, Stimulus' daughter Stiminnie, is a full sister to Stir Up and Minulus.

Another Stimulus mare, the Rosedale Stakes captor Mrs. Punch, whose four winners have averaged over 13 races and almost $27,700 apiece, foaled the William-son-Bishop filly by Porterhouse's sire *Endeavour II.

Other Old Westport-Laguna Seca offerings include the vendue's only representatives of Better Self, Bolero, Ponder and *Priam II. The son of Hickory Stick's sire Better Self is out of *Humaya, who placed in the Diana Handicap. She is a producing half sister to the international star *Pretal. The colt by Bolero, sire of Wreck Master and Battle Dance, is the first foal of Our Bobbie, half sister to the record-breaking jumper Look Around. The son of Needles' sire Ponder is from the good winner and 100% producer Darby Dingo, half sister to the classy Colletto. The colt by *Priam II, who has gotten Cousin, Landlocked and Peter Lane, is the second offspring of Polywich, unraced half sister to the good overnight handicapper Breakers and to the stakes-placed Angledozer.

Two *Strolling Player mares have colts by young stallions in the partnership bunch. Frapia, a 14-race winner herself and half sister to the classy Avacado, has a son of the successful sire Mr. Trouble. Fleet West, victor in the Narragansett Stakes, has a colt by Palestinian, whose first offspring are now winning as two-year-olds. She is a producing half sister to West Fleet.

Completing the Old Westport-Laguna Seca consignment is a filly who has all the credentials to make a top producer when her racing days are ended. Her sire is Sun Again, who has gotten such race mares as Wistful and Sunshine Nell. This miss's dam, the 100% producer Grand League, is a half sister to that top-class trio of Busher, Mr. Busher and Striking; and to the dams of Jet Action, Glamour and Carolos. As you have doubtless surmised by now, the third dam is that peerless foundation mare *La Troienne, whose potent family seems to move from strength to strength.

Breckinridge Long.

A son and granddaughter of the stakes winner and stakes producer Nasca will be sold by Breckinridge Long, owner of Montpelier Manor Farm, Laurel, Md. Nasca, homebred by Mr. Long, took the Spinaway and Schuylerville Stakes. She has foaled 10 victors, including Big If, who captured the Remsen and Newtown Handicaps; and the Bowie Breeders' Stakes Heroine Loraine, who in turn produced Westward Ho, scorer in last year's Kent Stakes and Discovery Handicap.

Nasca's son is by Shut Out, sire of two of the mare's previous track successes, as well as of such outstanding performers as Hall of Fall, One Hitter and Social Outcast.

Country Life Farm (John & Joseph Pons)

A full brother to Ace Tip, who ran third in the New Jersey Stallion Stakes, is the contribution of John and Joseph Pons' Country Life Farm, Bel Air, Md. This colt by Case Ace, sire of Pavot and Lochinvar, is also a half brother to the Sportsman's Park Inaugural Handicap winner Blunt. The seven starters of the dam, the 100% producer No Tip, four of whose foals to race have been by Case Ace, have averaged seven victories apiece and are still piling them up.

Mulholland Bros.

A half brother to Party Gossip, who won a division of the Hialeah Juvenile Stakes after having been sold at Saratoga by the Mulholland Brothers, heads the quartet offered this summer by those owners of Maplecrest Farm, Georgetown, Ky.

This colt, by the excellent Argentine invader *Miche, has as grandam Dark Beauty, half sister to the Arlington Futurity victor Far Star, who foaled Star Boarder, Star Reward, Fleeting Star and Sabaeon.

PIMLICO'S JOCKEY HALL OF FAME

At Pimlico last year there was started a Hall of Fame for jockeys. The idea is to install one active and two retired jockeys each year. For a starter, they picked the one-and-only Eddie Arcaro as the active one (they couldn't have picked a more active one). The two retired representatives were Earl Sande and George Woolf.

This year, there will be the same number added, one active and two retired. The way they will be picked is that Lou Pondfield, chairman of the Hall of Fame, has invited thirty sportswriters and broadcasters to make up a nominating committee. This committee will choose ten candidates of which three are active and seven are retired riders. Then, that list of ten will be submitted to 1,000 sportswriters across the country who will make the final choice of the three to be installed in the Hall of Fame for this year.

Nobody asked my opinion, but I'd vote for Isaac Murphy and LaVerne Factor for the old timers and Johnny Longden for the current one (Ted Atkinson next year).

—R.J. Clark.

A FORTUNE IN STUD FEES

Columnist Kent Cochran reports that, providing that all of them got in foal, the 32 mares sent by Mrs. John W. Hertz to outside stallions, would be charged total stud fees of $190,000. Adding the fees for mares sent to her own stallions, Count Fleet and Count Speed, the total yearly bill would be over $250,000.

CLOSED CIRCUIT FOR RANDALL FANS

A closed television circuit which will enable fans to witness the running of each race from almost any part of the plant is in readiness for the 44-day meeting at Randall Park. In charge of the operation is Bill King, who is also supervisor of the film patrol at Randall. The pictures which Randall fans will view on the 10 receiving sets placed strategically throughout the grandstand, clubhouse, and Turf Club are the same pictures which the stewards study when determining the validity of a foul claim. Closed television proved extremely popular with the fans at Tropical Park last winter, and president Saul Silberman is confident Ohio fans will give the innovation the same welcome.

BONSAL'S 'BODY ENGLISH'

This reporter has seen some grandstand riders, who help their jockeys over steeplechase fences, by lifting a foot in the grandstand each time the horse approaches an obstacle, but never before did he encounter a finer exponent of "body English" than Frank Bonsal. Even though his horse, Bradley, only won by a lip and returned $15.60, this reporter was fascinated almost as much by the performance of Bonsal as he was by the horse. During the horse's final strides to the wire, Bonsal was bent over double, frantically working at imaginary reins while both eyes concentrated on Sammy Boulmetis in the saddle. It was a truly wondrous performance. In fact, after the race, we happily shook hands with Bonsal. I'm sure his ride was the clincher.... Tom O'Reilly in The Morning Telegraph.

THE MOLLY PITCHER 'CAP

Mr. Amory Haskell's Blue Sparkler's victory in the Molly Pitcher Handicap at Mr. Amory Haskell's Monmouth Park brings to mind an interesting bit of information about the Molly Pitcher.

My Celeste ran in that race four times, starting with the 1950 one. In her first three tries, she ran second. In 1953 she made the grade and won it. Just shows what persistence will do. - R.J. Clark.

KEENELAND WORK STARTED

A complete resurfacing of the Keeneland track and the installation of a new drainage system leading into the infield got under way last week. The work is expected to be completed by Sept. 1. - F.T.P.

STAKES DAMS

Twenty percent of the dams of the Keeneland Summer Sales yearlings either won or placed in stakes during their racing careers. Forty-eight of the matrons represented in the sale won stakes races while 25 others placed in one or more stakes. (The Keeneland sales will be held July 30, 31 and August 1, at the Keeneland Race Course.)

Seven of the stakes-winning mares were Oaks winners - either in this country or abroad. How won both the Kentucky and Coaching Club of America Oaks; Ari's Mona, Cnina, Come and Go and Flying Lee scored victories in the Kentucky Oaks; and Admirable and Linaria were Irish Oaks winners.

NASHUA IN 13

Nashua is presently occupying stall number 13 in the Woodland Farm barn at Monmouth Park. If his trainer Fitzsimmons ever had any superstition about the number, it was dispelled last year when Misty Morn, occupying the same stall, won the Molly Pitcher and the Monmouth Oaks.

HENDERSON HOME FEATURED

"Llangollen," the 141-year-old Lexington, Ky., home now owned by James G. Henderson, breeder and advertising executive, was the subject of a feature article in last week's Sunday Herald-Leader, which described the house as "among Lexington's loveliest." F.T.P.

BEAUMONT TOBACCO BED RAIDED

Someone must have a grudge against the tobacco bed at Hal Price Headley's Beaumont Farm, Lexington, Ky. Last week, for the third time in three years, plants were discovered pulled from the ground and scattered about the field. About 100 plants were destroyed this time.... F.T.P.

OLD TIMER'S DAY

July 14 ought to have been called "Old Timer's Day" at Jamaica.

A spry nine-year-old by the name of Squared Away (Piping Rock--Imperatrice by Caruso) won a six-furlong allowance race by the simple expedient of breaking first out of the gate and staying there all the way. The time of 1:10 4/5 on a sloppy track wouldn't exactly set the world on fire, but those horses the gelding beat made up a nice field. It included (in the order of finish) First Aid, *Le Beau Prince, Admiral Vee (which could hardly lose at Jamaica's spring meeting), Shimke, and Momus.

In the next race, The Edgemere Handicap for $25,000 added money at a mile and a sixteenth, a five-year-old named Artismo (*Goya II - Kentucky Flash by Sun Teddy) closed fast and nosed out the rejuvenated but tiring Summer Tan for the win.

Another oldster was King Jolie (Platter-Jaconda by Belfonds). He is a seven-year-old bay gelding. He won a $3,500 priced claiming race at a mile and a sixteenth, the second race.

FEBRUARY SALE AT HIALEAH

Would-be buyers at Keeneland and Saratoga who may be disappointed in not getting the yearling/s they wanted, will be interested to know that the Ocala Stud Farms will sell twenty two-year-olds (foals of 1955) at Hialeah early in February of 1957. These youngsters will be broken and ready to run, having been through the course of training at the farm which includes breaking from the gate.

The dams of these now yearlings which the Ocala Stud Farms will sell, have produced the winners of over a million dollars. Six stakes winners have come from these mares, and four others are the dams of winners of over $65,000. Included in the group is the half-sister to Needles and Menolene and half sisters to the stakes winners Smooth Stride, First Cadet. Twelve of these youngsters are eligible to Florida-bred stakes, and seven are eligible to the Maryland Breeder's Stakes series.

NEW ENGLAND PIONEER

Lou Smith, impresario at Rockingham Park is personally responsible for the revival of racing in New England. He reopened Rockingham Park in 1931 with certificate wagering. After the courts finally declared this to be illegal, it was closed until 1933 when pari-mutuel betting was permitted by law. Actually, the 1931 venture was a revival of the days when Rockingham had a seven-furlong chute in front of the country hotel at the nearby village of Salem and was patronized by such mythical figures as Lillian Russell, "Bet a Million" Gates and "Diamond Jim" Brady.

FINNEY SEES BIG ENGLISH RACE

While awaiting the return journey to America with *Tulyar, which was due to leave Shannon Airport some thirty-six hours later, Humphrey S. Finney visited Sandown Park to watch the Eclipse Stakes. Despite the incessant rain that fell all day, the visitor was obviously enjoying himself, and he consented to appear for the Independent Television Authority for an interview.

Finney was hoping that victory in the valuable ten furlong event would go to Larry MacPhail's Hafiz II, who started favourite, but the colt disappointed to finish only fifth behind the French horse Tropique in the eight-strong field. P. T.-C.

$100,000 RACES

On July 14th, for the first time in the history of American racing, there were held three $100,000 added events - the Monmouth Handicap, the Arlington Classic, and the Hollywood Gold Cup for a total gross value of $437,325. The first and last were won by Nashua and Swaps and the Arlington Classic by Swoon's Son.

ARCARO'S QUOTES

Eddie Arcaro is a champion in more ways than one. He's the nation's leading maker of quotable quotes. One of Banana Nose's most renowned verbal deliveries came as he dismounted in the winner's circle at Pimlico after scoring on Whirlaway in the 1941 Preakness. "Wipe the jam off my face, I've been on a picnic," Eddie told newsmen.

Sitting in the famed Alibi Room of Pimlico's classic old clubhouse, down on the first turn, Arcaro explained that he no longer bets on horses because it interferes with his judgment of a race as a participant, and besides, there isn't much time for figuring bets when he rides a full card. "I just make mental bets now," Eddie allowed. "So now all he's losing is his mind," quipped one of his listeners.

Perhaps one of the few times Arcaro was bested verbally was in an exchange with a heckler after he lost a race. A red-faced customer shoved his way through the crowd to reach the weighing-in scale. "That's two straight horses you've stiffed me on, Arcaro," he shouted. "I've had enough. I'll never bet on you again." "So go bet on Atkinson," Arcaro retorted. As luck would have it, Ted Atkinson rode the winner of the very next race, while Arcaro finished out again. As Eddie weighed in the same red-faced character, now all smiles, shoved through to the rail. "Gee, Eddie," he beamed, "thanks for the tip."

SARATOGA STALLS

Among the trainers who have the largest list of stall assignments at Saratoga are James Fitzsimmons, Max Hirsch, Sylvester Veitch, the Odoms, father and son, and Jack Skinner.

*ROYAL SERENADE'S BROTHER HAS VICTORY

Winner of the six furlong Somerleyton Stakes of 850 dollars at Yarmouth was the chestnut Beau Esprit who went clear a furlong out to win comfortably by a length and a half.

Owned by Lady George Cholmondeley and trained by Captain Cecil Boyd Rochfort, this was Beau Esprit's third outing this term, and he started at 100-8, for he had not previously been placed. A $9,500 purchase at last year's sales, the two-year-old is by the Irish stallion Beau Sabreur out of Pasquinade, who will be readily remembered as the dam of *Royal Serenade. P.T.C.

Switch Hitter Wins at Charles Town

FLORIDA WEIGHT ALLOWANCE

The Florida State Racing Commission has ruled that horses bred in that state which race for purses less than $20,000 are entitled to 5 lbs. weight allowance. It is said that this ruling was issued on the recommendation of the Florida's Breeders Association.

STEEPLECHASING AT AUTEUIL

Now that the flat racing season at Longchamps is over, major track racing in the Paris area has moved to Auteuil where all racing is over jumps and which features some of the finest steeplechasing in the world.

WAIT A BIT

Property of: Jack B. Ward, Ward Acres Farm,
New Rochelle, N.Y.

Many of America's outstanding training stables and farms are using WINN, Prophene-Plus, or Pro-Vi-Min. Why don't you try it?

Wins by some of America's most successful horses — means success by WINN.

WAIT A BIT and WINN

Companions Always

Jack Ward says . . .

"PROPHENE PLUS is the best low-level deworming product I have ever used. It not only destroys the worms, but it is a very good conditioner as well. My Stallion WAIT A BIT has done marvelously well on WINN."

WINN Prescribed for the horse in training to allow him to replace used-up energy quickly, aid in muscle development and nervous system development. Ideal for stallions, too.

PROPHENE-PLUS Prescribed for low-level de-worming program. Destroys strongyles but builds up blood which is weakened by the phenothiazine. Combines phenothiazine and Pro-Vi-Min.

PRO-VI-MIN Especially designed for growing horses on the farm. It is a combination of WINN, plus vitamins and minerals—all in necessary quantities.

proceeded to walk in front of each horse, looking at their eyes with unusually close scrutiny.

After announcing the winners, the judge informed me that my horse had had the best round, but that he could not pin us because of the spot in her eye; that this was indicative of loss of sight or impairment of sight.

When requested to go a bit further and to actually determine whether the sight of that eye was affected, the Judge declined and wished to decide the case on the presence of the spot per se.

Having shown hunters and jumpers for 20 years and never having lodged a protest yet, I did not protest at this show.

However, it seems to me that the meaning of the soundness rules currently in the AHSA rule book should be examined more carefully. For example, if a horse has a prominent splint large enough for all the world to see, it would naturally indicate a possible unsoundness. The existence of the splint, per se, would NOT mean that the animal was unsound. It could be an old bony growth, the position of which would not cause lameness. Further, if the animal galloped around the course sound and if he jogged out sound, the Judge would have to conclude that this animal is capable of hunting sound. The Judge would then consider the growth as a blemish and not as a disqualifying unsoundness. In other words, in this case, the Judge uses his own good judgment and interprets the soundness rule in the spirit with which it was written. The old Et. Riley manual for Animal Management makes the distinction between "sound" and "serviceably sound". A sound animal is one with no blemishes. A serviceably sound animal is one with blemishes which do not impair his serviceability.

It is this latter meaning which I take it is intended in the current soundness rules of the AHSA.

This letter is not meant to criticize the Judge's stand, as he was acting in good faith as he saw it. However, I do not agree with his decision as it appears to eliminate a needed step. That is once noting the blemish, I believe the Judge should go further and decide whether the animal's sight is actually impaired.

A judge is not expected to be a Veterinarian, but in this case, if an animal is capable of negotiating a course of jumps time after time with faultless performances, it leads one to believe that the animal's sight might be pretty good after all. As a matter of fact, a horse with no overt symptoms might well have an impairment of sight. In periodic ophthalmia, for example, there is frequently no accompanying blemish to be seen in the eyes.

The Judge himself admitted to me that the mare undoubtedly could go on out and hunt regularly with safety. He was making his decision entirely on the existence of the white spot in one eye.

To show the reader how unfair such a decision is, this particular mare can be blindfolded on her good eye and then be jumped time and time again without making a fault. Having done this, as the owner I knew her sight was not lost in the one eye. Not having tested further, the Judge was making a decision merely on the physical blemish per se.

When the AHSA soundness rules were originally set up, there was little agreement among the committee members in the first place. I believe the rules as set up, are fair. It is the strict literal interpretation without the use of judgment that I criticize.

What do other Hunter owners think? It is a provocative subject.

Sincerely,

Justin C. Yozell

Canada's Bronze Medal Great Achievement

Canada's Bronze Medal in the Olympic Three Day Event was a great achievement. Canada's only medal at the last Olympics was a bronze one for marksmanship. To have her horsemen do so well this time is an encouragement for athletes who are to take part in other Olympic competitions coming up. Furthermore, the publicity the Equestrian Team has received as a result of this success is a shot in the arm for horse shows and all the horse business in general in Canada.

Lady Luck may be the first person to give credit to for success, but of all the people who contributed, probably most is owed to L. J. McGuinness. It was Larry who sparked Canada's first entry in the Equestrian section when a 3 Day Event Team took part in the Olympics at Helsinki at which time he rode Tara and Stewart Treviranus rode Rustum (Victory Mark) to finish in the twenties—a very encouraging showing for a country tackling the Three Day Event for the first time. It was Larry whose persistence was responsible for Canada's participation this time too. He made available the services of his stable manager Maj. Anatol Pieregorski as Trainer of the Olympic Team. If anyone didn't give Canada much thought as a formidable contender (as I believe was not infrequently the case) it was because they overlooked the genius of Canada's Trainer.

When Lt. Col. Charles Baker, Team Manager, announced in England at the last possible moment that the riders were to be John Rumble, Jim Elder and Brian Herbinson with Larry McGuinness as captain, his judgement was certainly justified by the fine showing made by the Team which from reports is the youngest team to ever take part.

All three riders are from Toronto. John and Jim are both 22 and students at the University of Toronto, Brian is 25, a young father who had never seen his son, born after the Team left for England.

John Rumble had the best score of the Canadians finishing with 162.53 penalty points riding J. Harold Crang's Cilroy. With the Team's other horses imported it is gratifying to Canadians that the best horse was Canadian bred and trained. John Rumble's name is unlikely to be familiar to those outside Pony Club circles, although he trained for the 1952 Olympics and was to ride, but was grounded by a virus. John was formerly one of the most prominent riders at Junior Shows and a regular star at the Annual Inter Branch Pony Club Rally but has not ridden in open horse shows. He is a nephew of J. Lance Rumble exhibitor of hackneys and for a number of years President of the Canadian Horse Shows Association.

Brian Herbinson likewise was an active Pony Club member and successful Junior rider. Although he has shown hunters and hunted a great deal, his name is not well known as a show rider.

He is the son of Sandy Herbinson, for many years Secretary of the Canadian Hunter Society. Brian rode Tara owned by L. J. McGuinness and purchased by him in Ireland prior to the '52 Olympics. Tara ended the 3 Day Event with a score of 216.50 penalty points.

Jim Elder's name is familiar to all show fans. He has proven to be one of the most successful riders of jumpers in Canada and has on several occasions been on the Canadian Jumping Team. His score of 193.67 at the Olympics was gained riding Colleen—a mare purchased this year in England by A. J. Boylen for the Olympic Team.

With the British winning score of the Team at 355.48 penalty points—Germany at 475.91 for the Silver Medal and Canada's total at 572.70 over Australia's 691.14 and Argentina's 724.18; Canada can feel justly proud of her Bronze Medal.—Broadview

Triple Jay held on well for second place, finishing 2 1/2 before Dotted Line which was 3 1/2 ahead of Gay Life.

In the allowance test, each of the first three to finish carried 121 pounds. All the others save Tournure were under 113-pound imposts. Tournure, fifth to finish toted 117.

Levee ran the mile and one-eighth in 1:48 4/5 which constitutes a new track record.

The race was worth $38,500. This puts Levee at $103,200 for 1956. She has won 4 races, been second twice and third twice in 10 starts.

She took the Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont in June.

Last season, she had 3 wins in 16 tries—one of the victories was the Selima—and she earned $66,855.

The three-year-old filly is by Hill Prince—Bourtal, by Stimulus, and was bred by Claiborne Farm, which incidentally, bred Triple Jay, which finished second in the race.

Hedley Woodhouse rode Levee. N. R. McLeod trains her.

The eleventh running of the Lamp-lighter Handicap (July 25) was taken by C. U. Bay's Greek Spy. This three-year-old was the luke-warm choice in a field of 13 of his age.

The son of Greek Song—Spy Ship, by Slave Ship, was well back in the early furlongs, but rallied well and came through to win over Combustion II by 1 1/4 lengths. Eric Guerin rode him. The time, 1:41 1/5, is but one-fifth slower than the mile-and-a-sixteenth track record.

St. Amour II was third and Third Brother, fourth.

Greek Spy won $17,250, his largest pot to date. His 1956 earnings amount to exactly $30,000. He has 2 wins and 3 seconds in 8 times out.

At two, he won 3 races and $9,230. Sherrill Ward trains Greek Spy.

Howard Wells bred him.

Arlington Park

Mister Gus has been wearing himself down chasing Swaps in recent weeks, and must have thought he had hit a soft spot when he found a field without Ellsworth's Red Wonder, in the Arlington Handicap.

Taking advantage of the situation he galloped off with the turf event and hung up a new American record of 1:54 1/5 for a mile and three-sixteenths on the grass.

Summer Tan was second and Sir Tribal third.

Backers of Mister Gus collected $7.40 for each $2 invested.

The five-year-old son of *Nasrullah—Fichu, by Colombo, brought in $97,900 to Mrs. Richard Lunn, of Llangollen Farm, under whose colors he runs.

This was only his second win of the year—his other was in the San Antonio—but he went into the Arlington with earnings of $184,760. Three seconds and 1 third at Santa Anita can be rewarding. Now, Mister Gus' 1956 total is $282,660.

Last year, he won $109,100, with 3 victories, 5 seconds and 1 third in 13 trips to the post.

I. Valenzuela had the mount in the Arlington. Charles Whittingham trains Mister Gus.

Gustave Ring bred him.

Short Takes of Late Stakes

Claiborne Farm's Delta won the one-mile Arlington Matron on July 25. The race was worth $34,500.

The Del Mar Inaugural on July 28 went to Poona II.

AT TIMONIUM

Youngest rider in the ride and lead class was four-year-old Bobby Evans on Danny Boy, being led by his thirteen-year-old aunt, Bobbie Gardner. Heading the list of best dressed exhibitors was Pie Wickes (who appeared in the appointments class complete with shadbelly coat and top hat), followed closely by young Billy Doyle and Lynn Hardy.

CRAVEN'S RAVEN

Seldom equalled consistency was the word for the medium ponies in the jumper class in which six jump-offs were required to determine the winner. In the midst of their jobs as announcer and ring master ex-juniors Teddy LeCarpentier and Sydney Gadd were cheering for their old favorites. Sydney practically jumped every jump with Craven's Raven, the pony he won with last year.

SMITHTOWN SHOW

Although the Smithtown Horse Show has lost its show grounds to a housing development, the show will nevertheless be held on Sunday, August 26th, at the Knox School on Long Beach Road, St. James, Long Island, New York.

BASHFUL BEDFORD

At the Hanover, Pa. show recently, Ringmaster Joe Mulranen attempted to crown Bedford jumper champion (for the fourth consecutive year) with the traditional blanket of roses. The old veteran wouldn't hear of it. After several unsuccessful attempts to drape it over his back, Joe then turned to Peggy Green and awarded the blanket to her. As Peg left the ring with the roses worn shawl-like, Bedford followed hesitantly sniffing at the object. Later, with a bit of coaxing he momentarily accepted the strange article on his back.

VIRGINIA BRED VIRGINIE

Liz Lunn's grey mare, Virginie, who was bred by her owner at Llangollen Farms in Virginia, has made a brilliant debut on the West Coast. She is top green hunter on the point list in California and her recent wins include blues in the Green Hunter Stake and Show Championship at Flintridge-La Canada Guild Horse Show with more blues at the Channel City and the Del Mar Horse Shows, respectively.

AMERICAN PURCHASES OF BRITISH ABERDEEN-ANGUS

DEVELOPMENT OF THOROUGHBRED CENTER AT CONEJO RANCH

Ed. Janss and Dr. Jack L. Robbins have announced the formation of a corporation to develop the 7,000 acres of the Conejo Ranch in Ventura County into one of the nation's leading Thoroughbred centers. The property is convenient to Los Angeles but is considered to be at least 15 years away from the growth of the city. Dr. Robbins who will be in charge of the operation, plans first to construct a complete modern horse hospital to provide for the rest and care of horses from the race track. The second step will be the development of the ranch as a breeding center for corporation owned stallions, mares and young stock plus accommodations for breeders. Also being considered is the establishment of a full size training track where horses may train the year round. 3,500 acres of the ranch are suitable for pasture. The property has been in the Janss family for several generations.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. HORSE SHOW CORRECTION

In our July 20th issue we published the champions and summaries of the Charlotte Horse Show. We listed Carol Cathey's Sun Umber as working hunter champion, which was incorrect. Sun Umber was reserve and Sheffield was the champion. Sheffield was exhibited by Miss Becky Harper, young Hendersonville, N. C. horsewoman.

ALLEN SNOWDEN

The members of the National Beagle Club particularly those who participated in the Pack Trials at Aldie and in our other genial gatherings will feel the loss of Allen Snowden very deeply. He lived a full and useful life, and upon his death in Ottawa on June 25, was President of Brading Breweries Limited. as his speciality, were some of the many interests that occupied his effervescing life.

In 1932 he became Master of the first organized beagle pack in Canada, the Don Valley. From that time on, he became a connoisseur of beagles. An intellectual, he took a scholarly interest in the little hounds, reading and remembering everything that had ever been written concerning them. He had an extraordinarily retentive mind and was able to remember the breeding of not only his hounds, but of the hounds in all the packs that participated at the Nationals. This knowledge coupled with great charm and a delightful sen-

It was my good fortune to have shared a cabin at the Institute with him for the past three years. He was really ill the last time he came, but never uttered a word of complaint, and was still as interested in the hounds as ever. He could still smile and he could still tell stories, and that was the way he remained almost till the moment he died.

U. S. TEAM TIED FOR FIRST HALFWAY

Three days after the Olympic Games, riders from nineteen nations remained to compete in the Stockholm International Show (June 18-21). Great Britain won the Nations Cup followed by Italy, Spain and Portugal. At the end of the first barrage, Italy, Britain, and the U.S.A. were tied for first place. Unfortunately, we were not able to sustain this high standard subsequently.

POLO PLAYING PHILLIPS

Lyle Phillips, a polo player, now train-race horses, still keeps up his interest in the game and occasionally plays a bit at the Brandywine field near Wilmington, Delaware. Following further in her father's footsteps, she is also a trainer and had a nice winner in Overland at Monmouth Park not long ago.

Chronicle Cover

Pictured on our cover this week is a reproduction of a painting of Noodle Soup, dam of the stakes winner Menolene and of this year's Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes winner, Needles. The foal at foot, by Bull Briar, is a full brother to Menolene. The setting is the Ocala Stud Farm, Ocala Fla. here Needles was foaled. Noodle Soup is an outstanding candidate for "Broodmare of the Year" honors this year.

Noodle Soup a bay mare by Jack High—Supremene, by Supremus was sold under the agencies of the Fasig-Tipton Company in 1945, at Meadow Brook, N. Y. The Saratoga Yearling Sales moved to that locale during the war, due to the transportation problem. She was consigned by the Hop Creek Farms (New Jersey) of the late W. H. La Boyteaux. Samuel Fineberg, a Wilmington, Delaware furniture dealer, who raced a small stable, purchased Noodle Soup for $1,300. Mr. Fineberg later retired to Florida and offered the mare to W. E. Leach of Dickey Stables, (now Ocala Stud Farms) with the understanding that the 3rd foal would go to him. W. E. Leach referred the offer to W. Paul Little of Lexington, Ky., who moved Noodle Soup to his farm and arranged the booking to Ponder, which produced Needles. Little's interest was later terminated and eventually Dickey Stables became the sole owners of Noodle Soup.

It is doubtful if anyone attending the yearling sales on Wednesday August 8, 1945, believed that a $1,300 purchase would become the dam of a Florida-bred Kentucky Derby winner, and a prospect for "Broodmare of the Year" honors in 1956.

Redland Pack of Thomas T. Mott, whose horses she also conditions on the race track. Miss Phillips started foxhunting as a six-year-old with the Groton Hunt near her home in Andover, Mass. While she was enrolled in the veterinary school of Missouri University, she hunted with the Bridlespur Pack near St. Louis and the Mission Valley Pack near Kansas City. She has also won blue ribbons in jumping classes at the American Royal and Devon Horse Shows.
